SYP has an in-house repair facility and may require the services of an external Contractor on an ad-hoc basis where their in-house provision is at capacity. Justification for not using lots

Various options for Lots were considered for this Contract and a suitable solution was not identified.

Co-ordinating vehicle repairs in relation to geographical Lots would create unnecessary and costly internal administrative burden.

Having one main Contractor to receive notification of a collision repair requirement who can then co-ordinate the repairs based on available current resources and capacity was deemed the most efficient and cost-effective option.
