II.1.4) Short description

The service being procured is a Rehabilitation and Crisis Support Service based in Tower Hamlets. It provides 24-hour support within an accommodation-based setting for individuals transitioning from inpatient mental health services to more independent living in the community. The aim is to support service users through recovery in a safe, structured environment, reducing the likelihood of readmission to hospital.

This service is clinically integrated, with onsite input from healthcare professionals to ensure a holistic, person-centred approach. Service users benefit from coordinated support that aligns with both social care and clinical recovery pathways.
