Description

To mark the 100th anniversary of the RRS Discovery, arrangements have been made for a public event hosted at the museum in Dundee. The museum will provide the venue and deliver a programme aligned with its existing operations and curatorial expertise.

The provision includes:

Venue hire

Waived ticketing to support accessibility for schools and community groups

Coach access

Other essential event-related services

This arrangement ensures the effective delivery of a culturally significant event, supporting inclusive participation and alignment with the museum's programming and logistical capabilities.
