Scope

Description

The History taking & Physical examination skills training is delivered to clinical staff monthly for a minimum of 12 delegates, maximum of 18 delegates by 2 trainers. Some delegates will be upskilling or refreshing their history taking/examination skills and others will be preparing to enrol on to the Non-Medical Prescribing Programme.

The course content for this training has already been written and will be given to the appointed training provider to teach. The content is bespoke and therefore intellectual property of the trust which is not to be shared outside of the trust.

All equipment will be provided on the training ward at Goodmayes Hospital. The trainers will need to set up the equipment for each session and ensure hard copies of course handbooks are available for delegates. The ward is a training ward and can be busy at times with multiple training sessions taking place.

As this is a bespoke piece of work, the training materials created by North East London NHS Foundation Trust is intellectual property to be shared with the awarded supplier. Upon contract award, all materials will therefore be used in accordance with the contract provision and shall not be altered, shared or kept after contract expiry.
