Scope

Description

Interim contract for the provision of accommodation and support to female rough sleepers within accommodation, and a crash pad where their homeless status is assessed and support needs identified, before being referred to appropriate accommodation and support. This is an interim contract awarded whilst a homeless framework solution is being procured to award a longer term contract via call off from the new framework. This service is essential to the needs of female rough sleepers and is in accordance with statutory requirements, Homeless Reduction Act 2017.
