Description

Funding for 50 places on the suppliers Inclusion Leadership programme to support school leaders to understand and implement whole-school inclusive practice.

Activities undertaken will also include bespoke and intensive support to school leaders with a specific focus on sustainable approaches to reducing lost learning due to exclusions and suspensions. The supplier will link BCP school leaders to national best practice and support implementation.

Supporting the development of a BCP Three Tier Alternative Provision model. This will involve developing whole-school inclusion, a tier one outreach model, tier two short-term placements and improved reintegration from tier three provision into mainstream educational settings.
