Description

New Forest District Council is commissioning a 12-month Scale Up Support Programme aimed at helping a select number of high-potential small and micro businesses achieve significant growth. The programme will deliver tailored support including mentorship, training, innovation guidance, funding advice, and networking opportunities. The focus is on quality over quantity, with the goal of increasing revenue, profitability, market reach, and leadership capacity. The supplier will be responsible for designing and delivering the programme, managing applications, collaborating with stakeholders, and creating a lasting legacy through case studies and potential follow-on support. The total budget is £70,000 excluding VAT.
