Description

Flow control to quote and supply X4 process water header isolation valves two different sizes, X2 spool pieces that fit in-between the pipework and the valve again two different sizes, and X2 spare repair kits for the valves.

Included in the price is also a pressure test certificate which is needed to prove its up to its safety function.

We have had to have design involvement as the current valves that are installed are the wrong type of valve (Globe valve hard seats) and are passing and causing issues along with operator burden.

These Worcester valves are a must for plant to work more efficiently.
