Explaining policy requirements for suppliers event

Crown Commercial Service (CCS) will be running a 2 hour event to provide prospective bidders with information that will explain government policies. It will cover fleet agreements such as:

vehicle lease

vehicle hire

fleet management

purchase of standard and specialist vehicles

The session will cover key policy areas. Suppliers of all sizes and those unfamiliar with these policies are invited to join us to hear about:

social value and driving for better business financial viability risk assessments carbon reduction plans

prompt payment

cyber essentials

Presenters will provide you with an overview of the policies, how they operate in practice and what you need to do to prepare for meeting those requirements as part of your bid. There will also be opportunity for questions and answers.
