Description

The Service will deliver information, advice and support for unpaid adult and parent carers in Leeds in a range of different methods, to reach and improve outcomes for the varied needs of unpaid adult and parent carers.

The service should be provided flexibly utilising asset-based community development and taking a collaborative approach with key stakeholders and partners across the city to maximise the reach into all communities in Leeds, including ethnically diverse communities.

The service will act as an expert advisor around unpaid carers to inform and influence strategic plans and transformation programmes, including through active participation within key partnerships and boards.

The service will collaborate closely with statutory services, including adult social care, to enhance awareness of unpaid carers and ensure equitable provision.

The annual value is £1,422,983.
