Description

This Service will deliver information, advice and support for unpaid adult and parent carers in Leeds in a range of different methods, to best improve outcomes for the diverse needs of unpaid adult and parent carers. The service should be provided flexibly to maximise the offer and reach, by utilising asset-based community development and taking a collaborative approach with key stakeholders and partners across the city. The service will act as an expert advisor around unpaid carers to inform and influence strategic plans and transformation programmes, including through active participation within key partnerships and boards. 1.2.4 The service will collaborate closely with statutory services, including adult social care, to enhance awareness of unpaid carers and ensure equitable provision.
