Description

The Council seeks to procure a Mental Health and Emotional Wellbeing Support Service that delivers a strengths-based and trauma-informed support service, ensuring that communities and individuals are well informed, engaged and supported to build resilience, regain independence, and live well in their communities. The specification outlines the structure and delivery of the Service across three tiers. Each tier addresses specific aspects of mental health support, ensuring comprehensive coverage from community engagement to statutory interface support that individuals can move between relative to their needs.
