Description

Services for Adults with Learning Disabilities and Autistic Adults Face-to-Face Provider Engagement Event – Tuesday 14th October 2025 – Barnsley Location Barnsley Commissioners are developing a suite of Market Shaping Plans for Adult Social Care to support our ambition of a robust and sustainable adult social care market—one that is responsive to the needs of individuals and communities supported by Barnsley's Adult Social Care. We aim to ensure that services are high quality, affordable, and provide value for money. They should be accessible, promote innovation, and encourage market diversity to meet individuals' needs and aspirations. As part of our market shaping work, we need to engage with our commissioned providers as well as the wider provider market and gather your thoughts, ideas and feedback. Please register your interest in attending this face-to-face event on Tuesday 14th October, where we will be holding two engagement sessions. Each session will cover the same content, so please book only one. Session options: · Tuesday 14th October – 10:00am to 12:00pm · Tuesday 14th October – 1:00pm to 3:00pm Please register your interest on YORtender our Procurement Portal. You will then receive an email with further instructions on attending the event. The link to the advert notice is:
