Engagement process description

The Royal Borough of Greenwich is currently in the process of recommissioning our Youth Offer and School Nursing Service. Following on from our engagement with the market and residents, we have developed a proposal for the future of these services.

We are seeking further input from providers who are interested in delivering the School Nursing element of the service. We would like to meet with providers on an individual basis to test the viability of service elements to be included in our proposed model.

If you are interested, please contact childrens-commissioning@royalgreenwich.govt.uk to set up a meeting between 30 September and 28 October.

The outcome of these meetings, plus any information shared with providers in these meetings will be made available to other providers following this period of market testing.
