Scope

Reference

BT322

Description

The commissioned provider will engage up to 75 young people aged 16–25 who live, study or work in Westminster, prioritising those facing barriers, including NEET status, care experience, SEND, or low-income backgrounds. These young people will benefit from practical support and upskilling including:

- business idea development
- financial literacy
- branding and marketing
- pitching and presentation skills.

Participants will gain understanding of the practical skills involved in entrepreneurship, as well as the potential benefits, opportunities, and risks of this career path. To deliver lasting impact on all participants, the commissioned provider will also provide access to professional mentors, signpost longer term support and progression opportunities, as well as running a programme of workshops either hybrid or in-person
