II.1.3) Type of contract

Services

II.1.4) Short description

The aim of the Whole Family Wellbeing Support Service is to support pregnant women and their families and families with children up to three years old, who are resident in Angus and referred to the service by Angus Council Children, Families and Justice Service or project partners. The service will work alongside NHS services, supporting the needs assessment and will support families to access and engage with early help that they need. Using holistic family support approaches, this will prevent the family experiencing crisis or the need for statutory social work intervention. The service will support families with children who are resident in Angus and match them to the service that best suits their needs.
