Scope

Description

The University of East Anglia is inviting potential suppliers to contribute to a pre-market engagement exercise relating to the potential valuation of the collection at the Sainsbury Centre. The University is interested to better understand the market, its capacity and appropriate methods for a potential valuation of the full collection. The purpose of the possible valuation is ensure the stated value of the collection is accurate and up to date for financial and accounting purposes.

Please note that this is a pre market engagement exercise and that no contract will be awarded due to response to this exercise.

Please also note that University is not undertaking this exercise with a view to sale of any items in the collection.

The University of East Anglia is inviting comment to help its preparations for an approach to market later in Autumn 2025.
