Scope

Description

Newcastle City Council is inviting providers to participate in a market engagement session for the Commissioning of the Community Wellbeing Service.

The purpose of this session is to gather feedback on the proposed service model, understand market interest and capacity, and inform the final tender specification.

The Community Wellbeing Service aims to improve service users' wellbeing by identifying factors affecting their health and helping them access appropriate support. The service is designed to offer brief advice and intervention, and signpost or refer to local services and activities.

This session will provide an opportunity for potential providers to ask questions, share feedback, and express interest in delivering the service.
