Description

The scope of a discovery project aimed at developing a digital solution for the Greater Manchester (GM) Live Well Programme. The primary goal is to map existing systems used by public sector professionals and citizens to support the Live Well initiative, which focuses on economic inactivity and improving residents' well-being.

The discovery phase involves thorough investigation into the project's goals, scope, requirements, risks, and resources. It aims to provide clarity, mitigate risks, ensure efficient planning, and improve outcomes by defining the scope early on and preventing scope creep.
