Description

As senior leaders have mixed awareness of cyber security, this training will provide SCS with the knowledge and skills required to ensure they understand the importance of their role and responsibility for integrating cyber security and risk into the strategic delivery of the organisation. The training will support SCS to:

- ensure that Cyber governance, is embedded throughout the organisation, including its people, systems, processes and technologies.
- understand their role in good decision making, and overseeing an effective cyber strategy, ensuring it aligns with the wider business strategy and organisational goals.
