II.2.4) Description of the procurement

Provision of consumables and diagnostic service for detecting Barrett's esophagus. By introducing a non-invasive procedure, the aim is to deliver significant benefits to patients, including earlier detection, reduced waiting times, and improved outcomes.

The Trust plans to enter into a 12-month contract with a single supplier capable of providing both consumables and diagnostic services as an integrated solution. This initiative is not a product trial but rather a pilot project to assess the Trust's capacity and capability for long-term service delivery and will include a 12 month extension option.

This is a notice with the intention to award a contract under the most suitable provider process. This is a new service, with a new provider and the contract is expected to be live between November 2025 and October 2026. The expected lifetime value of the contract is £316,848.00.

VI.3) Additional information

This is a Provider Selection Regime (PSR) confirmation of contract award notice. This contract has been awarded under the Health Care Services (Provider Selection Regime) Regulations 2023. For the avoidance of doubt, the provisions of the Public Contracts Regulations 2015 do not apply to this award.

The decision makers were: Cancer Programme Manager

No conflicts of interest were declared among decision makers.

The key criteria were weighted as follows:

25% quality and Innovation

20% Value

20% Integration, Collaboration and Service Sustainability

25% Improving access, reducing health inequalities and facilitating choice

10% Social value

The highest weightings have been applied to ensure a high quality, safe and effective services that are fully integrated in the healthcare system and that provide improved access, reduce health inequalities and facilitate choice. These are the most important elements of the service.

Value for money is also an important element to ensure the service can be provided to as many patients as possible to minimise waiting times.

The rationale for choosing the provider with reference to the key criteria:

The supplier selected is the only one who is able to provide both the capsule sponge and testing as one solution. The pathology element is proprietary to the supplier selected.
