Description

Weston College is inviting suitably qualified and experienced suppliers to tender for the provision of furniture across its campus estate. The purpose of the tender is to establish a contract with a supplier capable of meeting the College's diverse furnishing needs, including but not limited to teaching spaces, administrative offices, breakout areas, and specialist learning environments.

The selected supplier will be expected to provide a high-quality, durable, and value-for-money furniture solution that supports the College's commitment to creating inspiring, inclusive, and functional learning and working spaces. This includes the supply, delivery, and installation of furniture, along with ongoing support and responsiveness to future requirements.
