Single supplier - technical reasons

This notice is to confirm the renewal of the LeanIX Enterprise Architecture platform, a Software-as-a-Service (SaaS) solution used to support strategic IT planning, application portfolio management, and technology lifecycle governance. LeanIX is a critical tool in enabling transparency, rationalisation, and modernisation of the IT estate.

- LeanIX is heavily embedded in current enterprise architecture workflows and integrated with key systems, business decision modelling and strategic roadmaps.
- The platform supports compliance with internal governance and external audit requirements.
- Current supplier continues to meet performance and value-for-money expectations.
- Transitioning to an alternative platform would incur significant switching costs and operational disruption.
