Description

Procurement of a temperature monitoring system to support compliance with UKAS ISO 15189:2022 standards across specialist laboratory and storage areas within the All-Wales Medical Genomics Service (AWMGS) and the Pathogen Genomics Unit (PenGU). The system will provide real-time monitoring, alerting, and data logging for ambient, refrigerated, and frozen environments, ensuring safe storage of reagents, samples, and diagnostic materials. This is a critical requirement under accreditation clauses 6.3.3 and 6.6.2, and will be deployed across multiple locations including DNA extraction labs, cold rooms, PCR labs, and specialist storage zones.
