Description

The Tees Mental Health Training Hub is a collaborative initiative commissioned across Stockton-on-Tees, Middlesbrough, and Redcar & Cleveland, aimed at improving mental health awareness, suicide prevention, and community resilience by providing a range of mental health training courses to support small and medium community-based organisations and businesses most likely to encounter those most at risk of poor mental health.

This service is a key component of the Tees Suicide Prevention Implementation Plan and aims to build workforce capacity in mental health promotion and suicide prevention across the region.
