Kent Fire and Rescue Services need to urgently send 5 officers on the Compartment Fire Behaviour Training Instructor Course in December 2025. The Fire Service College were the only supplier that had availability /spaces to be able to deliver the course in December 2025.

Kent Fire and Rescue Services needed to send officers on the training in order to run live fire training courses, the course qualifies training coaches to Level 3, meaning that they are able to carry out 3-key roles in live fire training - monitoring safety within the compartment, setting the conditions within the compartment and assessing students within the compartment.

Due to the urgency to have a provider deliver the course Kent Fire and Rescue have Direct Awarded to The Fire Service College.
