Engagement process description

Prior to any procurement process, GMP is undertaking a period of market engagement.

Interested parties will be invited to express an interest in this engagement and complete a short questionnaire, which will allow GMP to better understand the current market and assist the Authority in the development of the final specification and most appropriate route to market.

Expressions of interest, and requests to complete the questionnaire can be made by contacting Chris Garner via email at christopher.garner@gmp.police.uk.

Clarifications may also be sought via the same address.

Please quote reference A1220 on all correspondence.

There may be scope for a number of 1-2-1 sessions with interested parties, dependant on the content and information gathered during this engagement.

It should be noted that tender documents have not yet been issued for this contract. The full specification will be made available at that start of any formal procurement process.
