Scope

Description

Havering Council looking to establish a Framework through which we can procure and manage our Alternative Provision services. This will include having all providers pass through a quality assurance process, whilst also clearly demonstrating their suitability to provide a specific service in accordance with the outlined lots. The framework's purpose is to encourage a fairer, more competitive market and deliver better value for the Local Authority leading to better outcomes for our service users.

Engagement process description

We are holding a network meeting on 26th November, where all Alternative Providers are invited, via email and eSource Portal, to attend.

During this meeting we gather data related to QA, costs, market trends and any other info which can help us determine how best to establish our framework and its lots.

Interested parties are invited to provide expression of interest to this opportunity. Please contact Callum Watt and Anusha Addu
