Description

This is a direct award extension of ~6 months to the current contract to ensure continued provision of a vital service to the Trust's patients, especially in relation to the Trust's soon to be opened Community Diagnostic Centre in Slough. In relation to this new facet of delivery for this service, this extension will grant the Trust vitally necessary time to ensure that a timely and fully legislatively aligned procurement process can be delivered for an important requirement of the Trust's service output for patients.
