Description

The Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office (FCDO) intends to engage with the market in advance of the procurement of the One HMG Movement of Personal Effects (MOPEC) contract.

This notice is NOT a call for competition. It is being issued for the purpose of:

- Informing suppliers of a forthcoming procurement
- Inviting interested suppliers to participate in early market engagement using the Supplier Expression of Interest Form (link below)
- Gathering supplier insights via a Request for Information (RFI)

Overview:

The contract is for the provision of end-to-end relocation and logistics services for UK government personnel moving to and from overseas posts. It covers the movement of personal belongings and personal vehicles to and from overseas posts. The supplier shall be required to provide all the comprehensive services necessary for the safe, expeditious and satisfactory removal and delivery of personal effects, Unaccompanied Air Freight (UAF) and personal vehicles by airfreight, road and sea freight, in accordance with FCDO/PAG rules and regulations.

Suppliers interested in participating in market engagement must register using the following link:

Once registered, suppliers will receive the RFI Pack, an engagement timetable and instructions for any further participation.

NOTE:

- No procurement documents are available at this stage.
- This PPN does NOT formally commence a procurement procedure.
- Responding to this PPN or participating in any engagement activity will not confer any advantage in any future procurement.
- Participation is entirely voluntary and does NOT form part of any future selection process.
- FCDO reserves the right NOT to commence a procurement, amend the approach, or change timelines based on internal or external factors.
