Description

Warwickshire County Council is exploring options for delivering high-quality cycle training across the county to support increased cycling participation, promote sustainable travel, improve air quality, and encourage healthier lifestyles. The service will include Bikeability and other cycle training options for schools, individuals, and community groups, with a focus on accessibility and inclusivity.

The proposed service will be delivered across five geographical lots, aligned with Warwickshire's district boundaries:

1. North Warwickshire
2. Nuneaton and Bedworth

3. Rugby

4. Warwick

5. Stratford-upon-Avon

Each lot is expected to have sufficient qualified instructors to meet local demand and ensure timely delivery of training.
