Description

Futures Housing Group Ltd are looking to engage in Pre Market Engagement (PME) for office refreshment services as per attached documentation.

Pre-market engagement for staff café services is an important step in ensuring that the future catering provision meets the needs and expectations of both the organisation and its employees.

This process allows us to gather valuable insights from potential suppliers about innovative approaches, sustainable practices, and cost-effective service models currently available in the market. By engaging early, we can better understand market capabilities, refine our requirements, and build strong partnerships that promote quality, value, and employee satisfaction
