Scope

Description

Cross Regional contract on behalf of Councils Buckinghamshire, Hertfordshire, Milton Keynes, Reading, Bedfordshire and Oxfordshire to offer residential and educational provision for Children We Care For (CWCF) with complex social, behavioural and educational needs.

Cross Regional Project (CRP) delivers therapeutic residential care and educational services for children aged 11–17 with complex needs, operating across 11 homes in partner counties offering 36 placements.

A registered special school, commissioned under a block contract, provides education for pupils aged 11–17—including those without EHCPs—across Key Stages 3 to 5.

The new service will launch on August 1, 2027, starting with 36 placements and potentially expanding by 24 more. After six months, partners can buy extra placements at any time during the contract.

Engagement

Engagement deadline

19 December 2025

Engagement process description

This is a preliminary market to seek views from potential providers on how best to deliver Cross Regional Project that offers residential, educational and therapeutic services for children aged 11 to 17 inclusive with complex needs.

To partake in this preliminary market engagement, potential providers can register on and access the Council's e-tendering system - Proactis on: <https://procontract.due-north.com/ProjectManagement/ProjectDashboard?projectId=16101b29-4acc-f011-813a-005056b64545> then clicking on the "Opportunities" tile to search for the pre-market engagement project (reference:DN798997).

A preliminary market engagement questionnaire will be available on this project for providers to download and respond to by the end of Friday 19th December 2025.

Please note that any commercially sensitive information supplied by providers will be stored confidentially and will not be disclosed to any third party.

Also note that this is neither a call for competition nor a procurement exercise.
