Description

In Cambridgeshire, day opportunities for people with learning disabilities and Autistic people are currently commissioned through a framework that started in 2018. Cambridgeshire County Council is now looking at co-producing a future commissioning model and wish to engage with potential providers of day opportunities. It is expected that a new framework agreement will be in place by December 2027.

Engagement process description

Over the coming few months there will be various engagements that will discuss the co-production process and gather further experience and input from providers.

Cambridgeshire County Council invites providers of day opportunities to respond to a quick 6 question survey to dig deeper on provider experiences and thoughts on self-directed support options. It is intended to assess provider appetite and draw out any innovative ideas prior to our co-design workshops.
