Description

Dudley MBC is seeking to procure a service to support health improvement, reduce health inequalities, and align with local and national public health priorities. The service should emphasise prevention, early intervention, and health promotion, encouraging regular physical activity among children and young people aged 11–16, as well as engaging their parents and carers to support sustained behaviour change.

The aim of the service is to increase physical activity levels and promote better physical and emotional wellbeing for young people and their parent / carers. The service should achieve the following outcomes:

- Higher levels of physical activity
- Improved physical fitness

- Increased confidence in undertaking physical activity
- Improved emotional health and wellbeing
