II.1.4) Short description

Westminster HealthWorks is a borough-wide, community-led public health initiative commissioned by Westminster City Council as part of the #2035 commitment to improve population health. The Service aims to reduce health inequalities by delivering culturally responsive, preventative health interventions that improve heart, lung, and mental health outcomes for adults aged 16 and over.

Delivered through a hub-and-spoke model, HealthWorks will be led by a Lead Provider (the hub) that subcontracts with a network of at least 7 voluntary and community sector (VCS) organisations (the spokes). These Subcontractors will co-design and deliver tailored interventions such as blood pressure monitoring, smoking cessation support, health coaching, and culturally competent counselling.
