Scope

Reference

S1371

Description

Mind of My Own is an online system that allows the authentic voice of the child or young person to be heard in their own words via app or online input. It is currently used by colleagues to help monitor and respond to individual need and to ensure that the child or young person's voice is clearly recognised and integrated into plans designed to help them, including statutory meetings and reviews and to also provide a channel for them to raise concerns about their safety.
