Description

We are pleased to announce that we have now completed our additional work on the TEC Service Transformation model and we are now able to go out to market and will be hosting our first market engagement event via MS Teams on Tuesday 13th January from 10:00am to 11:30am. The purpose of the event is to share the below information and register interest from prospective partners. 1. Introduction to Sheffield's Adult Care & Wellbeing Services 2. TEC service vision, principles, and values 3. Overview of the proposed new TEC Service Delivery Model 4. TEC landscape in Sheffield, the role played by City Wide Care Alarms and partners, and operational activity data 5. Procurement approach 6. Future market engagement activity 7. Questions & answer session Following this event we will be holding individual in person sessions with all interested parties, these will be held in February 2026. Please register your interest in attending the event through the Portal or email adam.elwis@sheffield.gov.uk, we will then circulate an MS Teams calendar invite. We look forward to seeing you at the event.
