Scope

Description

Croydon Council informs prospective providers of an upcoming procurement opportunity for a Supported Housing Service in the London Borough of Croydon. The service will be procured through a public competitive process and is expected to commence following contract award.

The primary aim of the service is to provide safe, good-quality accommodation combined with supportive interventions that enable young adults to transition successfully to independent living.

Key objectives include:

1. Accommodation Provision:

Deliver well-maintained, secure housing that meets statutory and quality standards.

2. Support Services:

- Develop life skills (budgeting, cooking, tenancy management);
- Promote education, training, and employment opportunities;
- Provide emotional and practical support tailored to individual needs;

3. Move-On Outcomes:

- Facilitate positive transitions into independent housing or other suitable accommodation.

4. Safeguarding & Well-being:

- Ensure robust safeguarding measures and promote physical and mental well-being.
