Parental Wellbeing and Boundaries Training and Support Programme

Description

The Violence Reduction Unit (VRU) is seeking providers through this Invitation to Tender to deliver parental wellbeing and boundaries training and support. The commissioned programme will strengthen parent and carer networks through accredited training and a train the trainer model, enabling wider access to qualifications and peer led support. The focus of the programme will be on:

- Delivery of accredited training to empower parents and carers
- Building sustainable networks through train-the-trainer approaches

- Supporting parents and carers to gain recognised accreditations
- Enhancing emotional resilience and strengthening boundaries within families

This next phase will invest in training and support that equips parents and carers with the skills to foster resilience, set healthy boundaries, and extend support across their communities. By embedding accreditation and peer-led delivery, the programme aims to create lasting impact and stronger family networks and communities.
