Description

This Planned Procurement Notice is being published to alert the market that NHS England is seeking to appoint a provider to deliver Child Health Information Services (CHIS) across the North East and Yorkshire and Cumbria. The primary aim of CHIS is to establish and manage comprehensive child health record records. These are used to support organisations that provide specified public health interventions in ensuring that all children are offered the full range public health interventions.

The opportunity will be offered to the market as a single contract.
