Scope

Reference

GP229

Description

As of 1st April 2025, workplaces in England must separate their waste before its collected. This includes any waste produced by employees, customers of visitors. The legislation details; You must collect food waste, even if the workplace does not serve food or have a kitchen.

You must always separate dry recyclable materials (plastic, metal, glass, paper and card) food waste and non-recyclable waste (also called residual waste).

We currently do not have this capacity to carry this service in-house. Therefore, we are going to engage with the awarded supplier as they currently carry out this functionality for School Catering.
