Scope

Reference

2024-246

Description

Milton Keynes City Council are currently out to tender for the provision of Carers Support Service – Older People Specialist Provider

The Carers Support Service will be delivered as a tiered model of support. The tiered approach encompasses levels of support and specialism. It has a lead provider, who provides overarching Information, Advice, and Guidance (IAG) and acts as a single point of access. It then has a number, depending on requirements, of specialist organisations who work in collaboration to meet the needs, i.e. unpaid carers of any age. The specialist organisations will cover the areas of:

- Young Carers and Young Adult Carers
- Mental Health

- Learning Disability and Neurodivergence
- Older People

The Older People Specialist Provider organisation forms part of the tiered approach.
