Changes to notice

This notice has been edited. The previous version is still available.

The value of this contract has been increased from £216,000 to £337,664.64 ex. VAT. This is an increase from £313,200 to £405,197.57 inc. VAT. The value has been amended due to an error in the calculation of the charges.

The estimated date the contract will be signed has changed from 23rd December 2025 to 9th January 2026 to account for a new 8 working day standstill period. The contract start date has also been amended to reflect this.

Scope

Reference

P_19864

Description

The 2-month continuation (plus 1-month contingency) of the current protective monitoring service using IBM QRadar for on-premises and AWS-based Buyer-owned infrastructure and applications, to allow for transition to the in-house, long-term replacement solution. An operational support team monitor, support and patch the Protective Monitoring service and QRadar components including onboarding of new log sources. A Security Operations Centre (SOC) provides analysis of alerts, carries out triage and investigation of any potential security event, and alerts the Buyer.

The monitoring service will be delivered from January 1st 2026 until March 31st 2026. An operational support team shall monitor, support and patch the Protective Monitoring service and QRadar components including onboarding of new log sources. A Security Operations Centre (SOC) shall provide analysis of alerts, carries out triage and investigation of any potential security event, and alert the Buyer.

The replacement in-house, long-term replacement solution is in the final stages of development and governance with an anticipated go-live of Jan/Feb 2026 with the current IBM QRadar contract terminating on 31st December 2025 with no further extensions available, this short-term continuation contract is required to support transition.
