Scope

Description

This procurement is Phase 2 of the Mental Health Supported Living (MHSL) procurement. MHSL will provide accommodation-based support for people with serious mental illness (SMI), which includes conditions such as psychotic disorders (including schizophrenia), bipolar and personality disorder. The MHSL Pathway will support people to develop independent living skills, progress their mental health recovery and move away from homelessness/ housing precarity and into their own home

Lot 1. Mental Health Supported Living - Central Locality

Description

The service is for people with high support needs. The service will be locality based connecting residents to their local communities. Please see Schedule two Specification for more details of this service. The Mental Health Supported Living Central Locality (Lot 1) service will provide the service within no less than 44 lettable units in a cluster of properties identified by the Provider within the locality that is broadly aligned to the Central Integrated Neighbourhood Teams. The landlord of identified properties must be a Registered Provider. Tenderers must pass all the pass/fail property criteria as set out in Schedule 4B. If this does not happen the submission will fail. The service will provide at least 44 lettable units. Please see property description in Schedule 4b for further details. The maximum annual budget for this Lot 1 is £1,148,960. The Authority reserves the right to reject any Tender with a tender price in excess of this budget in any year of the Contract Term for the service."

Lot 2. South Locality

Description

The service is a combination of high and low support. The service will be locality based, connecting residents to their local communities. The Mental Health Supported Living South Locality (Lot 2) will now provide services in 36 high support and 10 low support units across a cluster of properties within the locality that are broadly aligned to the South Integrated Neighbourhood Teams. This has been revised from The original notice which was for 58 units. This is due to the withdrawal of property by a landlord.
