If such notice is given and the Employer has not within six months requested the Consultant to resume the duties suspended, the Consultant may serve 30 days' written notice on the Employer requiring it to end the suspension. If the Employer has not notified the Consultant within that 30 day period that the suspension is ended the Consultant may immediately by written notice to the Employer terminate its engagement in connection with the Development.

- 15.2 In addition to any other rights and remedies which the Employer may have, the Employer may at any time by written notice to the Consultant immediately terminate the whole or any part of the Consultant's engagement in relation to the Development.

- 15.4 The Employer may terminate the Consultant's employment under this Agreement forthwith on written notice if the Consultant is declared bankrupt or if (being a company) the Consultant is insolvent; and any termination in such circumstances shall be without prejudice to any claim or action or remedy which the Employer may have against the Consultant in respect of any antecedent breach of any of its obligations contained in this Agreement.

- 15.5.2 a fair and reasonable proportion of the next following instalment of the Fee commensurate with the Services which the Consultant has performed up to the date of such suspension or termination (the Due Date for which shall be 7 days after the later of the date of termination or suspension and the date of issue of the Consultant's valid VAT invoice for such proportion and the Final Date for Payment shall be 30 days after the Due Date for such proportion), less any amounts previously paid by the Employer to the Consultant for the period up to the date of suspension or termination.

- 15.6 Upon any suspension or termination under this clause 15 the Consultant shall not be entitled to any sums in respect of loss of anticipated profit, loss of contracts or any other losses and expenses arising by reason of or in connection with such suspension or termination. Subject to this, termination of the Consultant's engagement, however it arises, shall be without prejudice to the rights and remedies of either party in relation to any negligence, omission or default of the other prior to such termination.

- 15.7 Following any termination of the Consultant's engagement however it arises the Consultant shall immediately take all necessary steps to end, in an orderly manner, the provision by it of the Services, such steps to be taken with all reasonable speed and economy. The Consultant shall also deliver to the Employer copies in such form as the Employer may reasonably require of all Material and other documents including (inter alia) negatives and CAD disks (whether in the course of preparation or completed) which the Consultant holds in connection with the Development and any copies which the Consultant may hold of all documents provided to it by the Employer or by others in connection with the Development.

15.8 If, for any reason, the Employer does not proceed with the Development, the Employer shall be liable to pay only that proportion of the Fee that relates to the part of the Services reasonably undertaken. The Employer shall have no liability for the loss of any remaining part of the Fee or for any other loss or damage however it arises or is caused.

17.1 If any term or condition of this Agreement is for any reason held to be illegal, invalid, ineffective, inoperable or otherwise unenforceable, it shall be severed and deemed to be deleted from the Agreement and the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement shall not be affected or impaired thereby. If any terms or condition of this Agreement is found to be illegal, invalid, ineffective, inoperable or otherwise unenforceable but would not be so if some part of it were deleted, the term or condition shall apply with such modifications as may be necessary to make it enforceable.
