The Authorities cannot accept that trivial information or information which by its very nature cannot be regarded as confidential should be subject to any obligation of confidence.

In certain circumstances where information has not been provided in confidence, the Authorities may still wish to consult with Bidders about the application of any other exemption such as that relating to disclosure that will prejudice the commercial interests of any party.

The decision as to which information will be disclosed is reserved to the Authorities in question, notwithstanding any consultation with the Bidder.
